

The Great Hall

BEST PLACE
at the historic pabst brewery

One of the most sought after venues in Milwaukee is The Great Hall. Built in 1880 it was the corporate headquarters of the Pabst Brewing Co. and includes the former office of Captain Frederick Pabst. Renovated in 2014, "Great" is an understatement, as the original stained glass windows allow natural light to flood the room. You can see the wonderful Milwaukeean history in the wood flooring repurposed from the old brew house, ornate woodwork and cream city brick exterior. Also featured is a back bar from Cristanelli's Saloon in Norway, MI. Rumor has it that Henry Ford & Thomas Edison were frequent visitors to the bar. Below the Great Hall, in what was formerly the infirmary is the Speakeasy, remodeled to resemble a Pre-Prohibition era taproom.

Blue Ribbon Hall

With your first step into Blue Ribbon Hall, you will instantly be transported back to a time when things were a little tougher and, yet, life was simpler. Experience a piece of American history and enjoy yourself surrounded by Old-World charm and hospitality. Blue Ribbon Hall is located in what was once a Milwaukee Public School built in 1858. Remodeled in 1944 for the 100th anniversary of Pabst, the venue is one of the finest reproductions of a 17th century German Beer Hall in America. Complete with stained glass windows, dark-raftered ceilings, colorful fresco murals, ornate architecture and period furniture & artifacts. It also includes a balcony from which visiting minstrels once sang the news they gathered from their travels.

Square Footage: 2000 square feet

Total Capacity: 150-175

Have a magical and memorable wedding, reception or business function in one of Milwaukee's most popular and historic venues.
